MEITHEAL FUNDRAISER:

We in Meitheal are delighted to invite everybody in the parish of Kilmaley, both young and not so young to a Social Gathering in the Daycare Centre on Sunday the 6th Nov at 2pm.

This year, being our first post covid event makes our coming together to chat and socialise extra special after a challenging two years of relative isolation.

There will be free light refreshments for all and some of fun activities and goodies organised for children. Local musicians will entertain us while we mingle and mix in a convivial atmosphere.

For those who are interested in a walk prior to the social gathering, we will meet at the DayCare Centre at 12.30pm and go on a 5k walk around Kilclougher and a shorter walk to the playground and GAA pitch for younger children.

Our annual fundraising event raises much needed funds to continue Meitheal activities and maintain local amenities within the community such as Kilmaley Playground, Parish Defibrillators, Parish green areas, Loughburke picnic area, Community text alert, Parish Graveyards and maintenance of playing pitches. Our donation envelopes can be returned by post or at our fundraising event in Kilmaley Day Centre on Sunday November 6th. Our Go-FundMe has been a great success over the past few years and for those who wish to donate to Meitheal online can do so on the following link. https://www.gofundme.com/kilmaley-meitheal-annual-fundraiser
