Third Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

We come to Easter faith by acknowledging the hungers of the heart, by searching the scriptures, by holding on to the story of the first disciples and witness of the women, by the Eucharist and by sharing our faith. Is there more? As the story starts, he stops them. Towards the end of the story, they stop him from walking out of their lives, perhaps for ever.

The moment of desire leads to the moment of recognition and a life changing encounter.
