Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The risk for Christians today is that we read the parable complacently, because it clearly refers to Jews and

Christians in the first century; But it is not only in the past that the leadership of God's project has changed hands, so to speak. Down through history, more committed groups have challenged the established Church—they can attract by more exciting worship and by a closer living of the Gospel. The hard words of St Paul to the Gentile Christians in Rome may help to shake us up; for if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you.
