EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION continues on Tuesdays from 2 to 8pm in Kilmaley Church.

The main themes for the Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time are humility, respect for others, and selfless generosity. The readings emphasize the importance of true greatness coming from acts of humility, rather than seeking positions of power. Jesus' invitation to give without expecting return builds the Kingdom of God, and the celebration of God's care for the poor are also central to this Sunday's message.

WHY SUNDAY MATTERS.

This weekend the Irish Bishops warmly invite all Catholics to reflect on the profound gift of Sunday Mass. Sunday is the day of resurrection, rest, and Eucharist. It is the day when we gather as a community, united in our love for Christ, to encounter the risen Lord and be nourished in body and soul. This Year of Jubilee offers a unique opportunity to rediscover the heart of our faith and for those who have been away, to return with renowned Joy to the celebration of the Eucharist. www.catholicbishops.ie/there is something about Sunday resources page. Copies of the Bishops' letter are available at the doors.
