Kilmaley Parish Website or the IBAN numbers above.The Second Sunday after Christmas draws us gently deeper into the mystery of the Incarnation. The readings remind us that the Word who was with God from the beginning chose to dwell among us, entering fully into our human story. Christmas is not only a moment to be celebrated, but a truth to be lived:God has drawn near and remains with us.As the season continues, this Sunday invites us to slow down and reflect on what it means to welcome Christ into our daily lives. The light of Christ does not fade with the decorations or the passing of the feast days. Instead, it shines quietly in ordinary moments, through kindness, patience, forgiveness, and love.This Sunday also reassures us that we are God's beloved children. In Christ, we are given dignity, hope, and a future rooted in God's faithfulness. As we move forward into a new year, may we carry the light of Christmas within us, allowing Christ to shape our words, our actions, and our relationships each day.The Feast of the Epiphany Tuesday 6th JanuaryThe Feast of the Epiphany celebrates God revealed to all nations in the light of Christ. Guided by a star, the Magi remind us that faith is a journey of seeking and trust.
Christ still draws every heart toward Himself, offering light, hope, and salvation to the world.Mass times: Inch 9.15am
