on St Patrick's Day.On this Fourth Sunday of Lent, the Gospel of the man born blind reminds us that Jesus opens our eyes to God's truth. Lent invites us to move from darkness to light. As we walk with Christ, may we learn to see others with compassion, faith, and the loving vision of God.Mother's Day is a beautiful moment to thank God for the gift of mothers and all who show a mother's love. In their care, sacrifice, and quiet strength, we see something of God's own tenderness. Mothers nurture life, offer encouragement, and often place the needs of others before their own. Today we give thanks for mothers, grandmothers, and those who have been spiritual mothers in our lives. We also remember in prayer mothers who have died, those who long to be mothers, and those for whom this day is difficult. May God bless all mothers and fill them with the joy and peace they bring to others.Saint Patrick reminds us that God can work through the most unlikely paths.
Born in Britain, kidnapped and brought to Ireland as a slave, he later returned as a missionary filled with faith and courage. Through prayer, perseverance, and deep trust in Christ, he shared the Gospel with the Irish people. Patrick's lifeteaches us that suffering can become a path to grace and mission. His famous prayer, the "Breastplate of St Patrick," reflects a heart rooted in Christ's presence in every moment. As we celebrate his feast, may we renew our faith and share Christ's light with others today.Masses: Kilmaley vigil mass on Monday at 7.30pm.Inch Tuesday @ 9.15am. Connolly Tuesday @ 10.30am.COMMUNITY CAFÉ: All proceeds from the community cafe
