On this Third Sunday of Easter, the disciples on the road to Emmaus walk with heavy hearts and confused minds. They speak of loss, disappointment, and hopes that seemed buried with Jesus. How often we know that journey. We carry worries, grief, or questions that make God seem distant.

Yet the Gospel shows that Christ comes closest when we feel least certain. He walks beside them, listens patiently, opens the Scriptures, and warms their hearts before their eyes are opened in the breaking of the bread.

The same Lord meets us today in the Eucharist, in his Word, and in the companionship of the Church. Even when we don't recognise him, he is already near. This week, bring your conversations to Jesus. Tell him your sorrows and uncertainties. Invite him to stay with you. Then listen for his voice in prayer Scripture and Mass. Soon you may discover that the Risen One has been walking with you all along filling ordinary moments with grace peace hope and new courage for every step you take today and tomorrow always trust his mercy light guidance strength love for your family friends work home journey ahead this season of joy now Amen
