the Word of God, generously scattered without discrimination. Some seed falls on rocky ground, some among thorns, some on the path, and some on rich soil where it produces an abundant harvest.The focus of the parable is not on the quality of the seed but on the condition of the soil. God's Word is always life-giving and full of promise. The question is whether our hearts are open to receive it.Life can harden our hearts through disappointment, anxiety, busyness, or hurt. Like the thorns in the parable, the worries of daily life can choke our faith and distract us from what truly matters. Yet the Lord never stops sowing His Word. He patiently offers us new opportunities to listen, to grow, and to bear fruit.Every Mass, every moment of prayer, every act of kindness is another seed planted by God. Even when we cannot immediately see the results, His grace is quietly at work within us.As we gather this Sunday, let us ask the Holy Spirit to prepare the soil of our hearts. May we hear God's Word with openness, allow it to take deep root, and through our lives produce a harvest of faith, hope, love, and generous service for the glory of God.BASKET & ENVELOPE COLLECTIONS:*Weekly & Holy Day Envelopes €305Priest's Collection €169Major Repair Fund €977 €63,007 to date!Sincere thanks for your generosity! Contributions, can
