On the Sunday of the Word of God, we are reminded that Scripture is not a distant text but God's living voice. As Jesus proclaims, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand," the Word calls us to conversion and hope. The light that dawned in Galilee still shines through the Gospel today. When we listen attentively, the Word shapes our hearts, guides our choices, and calls us, like the first disciples, to follow Christ. May we cherish Scripture, pray with it daily, and allow God's Word to transform our lives and our world with faith always.
