from 2 to 8pm in Kilmaley Church.In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus looks upon the crowds with deep compassion because they are "troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd." His heart is moved by their needs, and He invites His disciples to share in His mission of bringing God's love and healing to the world.Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the labourers are few." These words challenge us to pray for vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and lay ministry, while also recognising that every baptized person is called to be a missionary disciple. We are sent to bring hope to the discouraged, comfort to the suffering, and the Good News to those searching for meaning.As Jesus entrusted His apostles with His authority to heal and proclaim the Kingdom, He entrusts us with the same mission today. May we respond generously to His call and become instruments of His compassion and peace.As another school year comes to an end, we thank God for helping us through our exams and challenges. Summer is now a time to rest, recharge, and enjoy time with family and friends. May these weeks bring fun, adventure, and new experiences, while reminding us that God is always with us wherever we go.BLOOD DONOR CLINIC at West County Hotel on
